

Hello hills from Dakota,

why are you
yellow?

Plants look for water

Hello desert,

72

who has combed
you?

Water disappears in the sand

Hello rocks,

why isn't there
anything green?

Wind is sometimes
a good sculptor

Hello
Mediterraneo
sea,

74

what happens to water that is evaporated by the sun?

There are almost 60
seas in the world

Hello street,

why are so lit up?

We want to learn how to think

Hello street,

why do you use cars to give people a lift?

76

It is great that cars don't pollute
